

Austrailian Cattle Dog (Heeler) Letters and Pics

JB

We celebrated JB's second birthday yesterday. We continue to be amazed at this boy. We have become more involved with the organization we foster for and have begun working with Yuma's animal control and rescuing local dogs. JB is an invaluable asset in this. He is such a smart confident dog that he takes over for me the instant a new dog comes into our home. It's incredible to watch him work with them. I've had dogs my whole life but I don't think I've ever had a smarter one. He definitely has all the heeler instincts but so much more. He's a thinker and a problem solver. His agility continues to amaze. I believe with training he could compete, but he is happy just running the courses Dan sets up in the backyard. Watching him figure out the best way to accomplish what he sets out to do is just incredible. He challenges himself to do better and better every time until he has everything completely mastered. I just sit back in awe! Included a few pics. I'm so glad we found 4 Bar D Kennels and scooped up this wonderful boy!

Thanks again,

Dan, Laura, Ana, Lefty and JB

Bonnie

Kathy,

We had a nice drive home. We stopped just west of Oklahoma City. She stretched her legs and took care of business. A little later she whined so we stopped. She took care of business. I was so proud of her for letting us know.

When we got to Amarillo, she took care of stuff and then felt good and played with her rope. When we were on the highway, she mostly slept.

Here at the house, I put her travelling blanket on the floor with toys on it. The other dogs do not play with these. She is a happy girl. The large dog rope for huge dogs, she pulls around, oh and she carries the tennis ball.

The others are taking a bit to warm up to her, but she is not pushing herself on them.

Bonnie is a smart little girl.

We will send pictures as we download them.

Thank you so much

Pattye

JB (Heeler)

Hi Kathy & Scott,

We are coming up on JB's first birthday and wanted to send an update. He's just an incredible dog. Not a big guy but solid steel. We (or I should say he) has started agility training. A few months back we started fostering dogs and we noticed JB using our foster and his brother Lefty as hurdles, spring boards, etc... We have since started setting up obstacle courses for him and he absolutely loves it.

He's very cautious and checks and rechecks everything before diving in but, once started, doesn't stop. I sometimes worry about him because the word stop is not in his vocabulary and this has lead to some injuries but we wouldn't change a thing. We just deal with it and move on.

He's a great dog to have with our fosters. Lefty, our bigger hound, is timid and unsure what to do but JB just takes them in and shows them the ropes. He also loves it because then he has 2 springboards instead of just one.

He's also become a wonderful kid's dog. Our 3 yr. old granddaughter comes down and he follows her around constantly. He will submit to playing dolls or whatever else Zoei throws his way. However, the back yard is his turf and if we're outside, it's heeling time.

Although he was supposed to be Dan's dog, he is a total mama's boy and this mama wouldn't have it any other way.

Thanks again, Dan, Laura, Ana, JB

Dear Kathy and Doug,

Just wanted to let you know I made it to my new home in Yuma. It's been a very busy time for me.

A) I met my new brother, 50 lb. Lefty. We've played many games of tug of war and I haven't won one yet! My first night (and ever since) I have eaten just fine. Lefty has no problems sharing so we both go from bowl to bowl.

B) 11 year old Ana was my next introduction. I like her a lot. She covers me with kisses and I kiss her right back (and sometimes bite her nose!)

C) Dan (dad) was next and boy was he surprised. He took one look at me and I knew I was home free. He's very excited for me to get a little bigger so I can go to work with him. In the meantime, we cuddle and play a lot and I cry when his chair is empty.

D) I found myself a perfect little nest on a little shelf on the microwave stand. Laura (mom) put my blanket in there and that's where I hide when I want to get away from Lefty. Also where I run when I'm in trouble!

E) I finally have a name. It's JB after a character dad liked from an old John Wayne movie.

F) Thanks for matching me to the perfect family. I sure love them and they love me bunches.

Love,
JB

Ace and Darren

I want to thank you again for selling Ace to me. He is an amazing dog. He reminds so much of my previous Heeler Max with his looks and his behavior. He's much more of a "ham" though by craving affection. I'm so happy that you were honest in describing him because he is just the coolest dog!! I'll send a photo of us soon and a photo of Max so you can see the resemblance. Blue Heelers rule! thank you Ace & Darren

Sassy New home

Thought I would give you a quick update on the little red heeler girl we got from you. We named her Sassy...which describes her personality perfectly. She came in...took over...and never skipped a beat! She loves everybody and our blue heeler Rosie like she has been with us from day one. She picked up potty training really quick and has never had an accident in the house. We spend a lot of time laughing at the quirky little things that she does and are having a lot of fun with her. Thank you so much for calling me about her! Karrie and Roper are her parents

Australian Cattle Dog

We purchased our beautiful ACD 2 yrs ago in June. She is just wonderful, beautiful, great temperament, and loving personality,,, 4-BAR-Kennels was great to work with and I would buy from them again hands down. Our puppy was healthy no problems, our ACD had to be shipped to CT, and that went smoothly.. Keep up the good work.... Cil

Pat's Gretel the Cattle Dog(Blue Heeler)

Hi! My name is Gretel the little shit. I am a self-confessed brat. I am full of piss and vinegar. I am so smart that I have my family fooled into thinking that I am dumb. I come in the dog door lickety split but I refuse to learn to go out at all yet. For protection, I stay right at my masters heels when outside the kennel. I also help them go to the john always. I sleep under Pat's chair always . Bitsy has totally adopted me and keeps my parts clean as a whistle. She also cleans up what I leave behind. She treats me as her own. I don't like her schooling on me outside though! She is a lot of fun to attack when she isn't looking. I am quicker than she is. Ha Ha! I bite and run. I am so quick! I miss nothing that's going on. Tater wants nothing to do with me pretty much but I am determined to win him over with my charm and cuteish ways. I feel great though. I am a happy girl! Miss you Gretel

Blue Heeler Tracy's Rango

Hello, We purchased a blue heeler puppy from you back in December of 2011. I just wanted to send you an update to let you know what a wonderful dog he is. We named him Rango and he is such a great dog!! I have attached a current picture of him :-). Thank you for allowing us to purchase him! Tracy
